Complaint #61390

Heard about the savings on the radio and called the number. Was told I would receive a card that I could use at the grocery store for up to $1000. Was also promised to receive 3 Walmart gift cards of $50 for signing up for three other services. Finally received the bogus coupon card but haven't received the Walmart cards. Want to cancel the other three services but no phone number is available. Waiting for the charges to hit my account so I can get information to cancel.

Complaint #107061

I heard the commercial on a Chicago Radio Station back in March. I immediately called and ordered the card, because I knew I could use the extra as a single mother. After speaking with 2 representatives, I was assured that my card would arrive in 7-10 days. I was also informed that I could use the card for anything except alcohol and tobacco products, and that if I didn't call to cancel my membership for the shipping, and coupon savers I would have a reoccurring monthly charge per membership. I was never told about the coupon savers placing a hold charge on my account as well. After 3 weeks and no card or membership packet, I called and was informed that all the information was sent to the wrong address on their behalf, and reassured me that I would receive my card by April 27, 2012. NOT SO!!!! I know that it is only a day away, but after reading all of these post, I believe I have been had. And to top it all off, I tried to call 866-761-1039 and it was disconnected. #REFUND OR LAW SUIT!!!

I called the number after hearing the advertisement on the radio. They informed me I would receive vouchers that could be used for any groceries- store or brand name, that I liked. Asked me a few questions, told me I qualified and then told me all I had to do was pay $19.95 for shipping and handling of the vouchers. I became suspicious when he never asked for my address or any other information I felt a "government stimulus program" would be interested in. I told them that I would call back after I researched the program and found out all the scam info listed. Companies like this should be jailed right alongside Madoff. Its sickening.

i heard an ad on the radio saying that this company represents a stimulus package. they made it sound as if it was set forth by the government for some type of consumer research. they never advised me that this was for coupons! after everything i decided to give the coupons a try. i signed up online to reach the coupons and the registration apparently never went through. i sent an email to customer service and the email bounced back as if that email doesn't even exist!

it was announced on kiss fm 98.7 that a grocery stimulus was available in my area. i was told if i paid 19.95 i would get a check for fifteen dollars in my name and a certificate worth 1000.00 to be used for anything except cigarettes and liquor to be received within seven to ten days. well it finally arrived and it is nothing but a cash rebate for $ 25.00 on money spent on groceries. it must be an original receipt. this poses a problem for me as it has a lot of my information on the receipt. the other thing was membership for two other clubs only offering discounts which i immediately canceled. i thought it might be a scam but it was announced on kiss and when i mentioned this to shelly agent #3679 she assured me it was legit.

i agree this crap is a big scam, they make it seem like they will send you a check fo $1000 so spend on any grocery needs you have and all it is is a website with coupons you hav to order, that you can actually get staight from the manufactorors themselves!
plus they sign you up for all these trials that you have 30 days to cancel and you wont get charged, there supposed to send you an email stating exactly what those sites are and where to go to cancel them, well they dont, and im still waiting for "support" to get back to me

P.S. PROBIN71.... you obviously work for the company since ive seen you on 4 different sites now talking about how great this crap is with only 1 post on each... at least switch up your name in the future...

Well, I have been using the program for about a year and it works great. I have read through all of these comments on the company and can tell that its user error, no fault of AGS. Just saying if used correctly it works. Its not a magic bullet for savings, but if you use it right you will save money.

I heard this same AD in Aurora CO, called to sign up to do a Stimulus grocery survey, not only was I ripped off my $19.95, but treated very poorly by their agents when I declined that I wasn't interested in signing up for additional products/services that were free and could be cancelled after the 1st 30 days otherwise would cost me $14.95 a month. I was told by the agent that he felt sorry for me and refused to let me speak to his supervisor and then hung up on me. When contacting Customer Service to be refunded and removed from the program I was mocked and laughed at. This is a terrible company and they are doing terrible things to people.. STAY CLEAR!

I feel the need to respond to this "complaint" from Coreen from 11/14/2011. The Advanced Grocery Savers program is exactly that... A PROGRAM. It is not simply "pay $20 and receive $1,000 in free groceries" as Coreen seems to be suggesting in her complaint. It is a program that IF USED PROPERLY does in fact work very well and has saved many people thousands of dollars on their grocery bills. Too many people think that they can just get everything in this world for free and as everyone should know, that's not how the world works. Advanced Grocery Savers is a legitimate program that DOES IN FACT WORK!!!

I suspect that the individual posting this complaint thought they were gonna be handed $1,000 in free groceries by simply paying someone $20. Sorry, that's not how it works in the world! You are paying for the system, and if you don't use it properly, guess what??? IT WON'T WORK. Naturally the internet let's anyone anonymously complain about anything under the sun, but anyone that is reading this should be aware - the claims in this complaints are completely inaccurate, so BEWARE!!!

So after she charged my card 19.99 she said it was an additional 1.95 for about 5 other free services just to pay for shipping. So come Monday my already low banck account will be even less by 30.00$
